HOW WE CAN HELP

We support employers and neurodivergent individuals via our Neuro-Works program to work together as they realise the unique strengths that come with neurodivergence (different ways of thinking) and the importance of an inclusive workplace. We specialise in Autism and ADHD. We support both parties to optimise communication, tasks and environments.

A symbiotic partnership between employers and neurodivergent employees can lead to a range of mutual benefits.

Benefits

Tap into a rich source of talent and discover the strengths of neurodivergent employees. See benefits including decreased absenteeism, increased productivity and decreased staff turnover costs. The synergistic blend of diverse skills and perspectives in the workplace can lead to heightened team performance and revenue.

WHAT WE OFFER

Services to employers, workplaces and neurodivergent individuals.

Workshops

Workshops for employers and workplaces to learn about neurodiversity, neurodivergence and "hidden" disability. Learn how to embrace differences and harness strengths in a way that will not only benefit the neurodivergent employee, but the business too.

Consultancy

Advice and tailored education to support managers in fostering a healthy and inclusive workplace. Refine and optimise communication, leverage neurodivergent employees' skills and abilities, and diversify your team!

Our services may be funded by the via the Government Employment Assistance Fund. Contact our team to discuss your options.

Individual Employment Support

We support neurodivergent individuals as they develop skills and discover strengths. Individual Employment Supports supports are provided at the request of the neurodivergent person.
